Mrs. Masterson

Assistant Headmaster

We would like to express our sincere gratitude for the support and education all of you have given us. Thank you for your wonderful additions to THS. We take with us the experience and knowledge thatwe have gained from our time at the school that all of you have built.

2005 Dedication

As a class, we have met many people who have helped us along our path from our freshman year to our senior year. The person to whom this yearbook is dedicated is somebody who has helped us all in one way or another and had an affect on our experiences here at Taunton High School. With his sense of humor that never fails, this person helps us strive to become successful people, not just students.In years before our time at THS, he was the student council advisor, a history teacher, and a coach. Now, he is our Associate Headmaster. He could have turned into an unsympathetic face in a suit; instead he has become a person who we appreciate for helping us to solve problems for ourselves and for being willing to listen. For all his help and involvement in the senior class and so much more, we, the class of 2005, dedicate this yearbook to Mr. Matt Mattos, Associate Headmaster.

I, Matthew, leave my Chief Ranks to whomever earns them.
I, Ashley, leave my parking space to the underclassmen.
I, Kaley, leave the advice, never take anything for granted, do what you can, and never give up.
I, Michelle, leave my skis to my sister for next year's Ski Club.
I, Kevin, leave my car to anyone who wants it.
I, Danielle, leave my bat to Kaylee Clemmey even though she already has the best bat on the team.
I, Christina, leave my dorkiness to all underclassmen.
I, Joseph, leave the position of Halloween freak to the next person dressed like Freddy.
I, Catherine, leave my patience to anyone taking Mrs. Dolezar's class.
I, Patrick, leave my left shoe lace to Emily Cohn to continue our trade of random objects.
I, Leah, leave the alien boy to Markie Wilbur.
I, Andrew, leave my ribbon bars to the future officers of the ROTC.
I, Kathryn, leave my car to my sister.
I, Catarina, leave my love of Starbucks Coffee to Heather Reed.
I, Andrea, leave my knowledge of Latin to Sean Fahey because he needs it.
I, Andrew, leave my car, Ralph, to my sister Rebecca.
I, Kyle, leave the corner of my thumb to woodshop.
I, Jonas, leave my Haitianism to the high school band and soccer team, especially to Mr. Rocha.
I, Brian, leave my adolesence to the school that taught me to be an adult.
We, 2005 yearbook editors, leave our patience and sanity to next year's Journal editors.

Brianna Dominico

Bri-Bri:
You're already graduating from High School? It can't be. Take my hand and we'll go back to Stasia's house and watch "The Elephant Show" together. You can "beep the corn" and dress up like Belle for the Parade of the Horribles. We'll listen to Uncle Randy's spooky stories about the goat and watch his eyes sparkle when he scares us. Then we'll all laugh together. We'll go to the Pumpkin Patch to find Rissy's bum-bum pumpkin and listen to Giovanna sing her "Twinkle Twinkle Little Star" solo. We'll go for a walk with MeMere and look for strawberries. We'll pull up our hoods and search through the woods for mushrooms with Auntie Debby. We'll look for sea glass on Salisbury Beach then eat fudgcicles on the steps of the Alvin with Nana and Nano. We'll catch butterflies in the outfield instead of softballs. We'll pass Auntie Dianne a banana as she runs by us in the Boston Marathon raising money for cancer research. We'll write your Christmas wish list and sing "Santa Claus is Coming to Town" TWO TIMES. Then we'd go to Nana's house and wait for PePere, I mean "Santa" to call. As Uncle Dave falls asleep, we'll play "I Spy" with RoRo and eat pizelles with Uncle Jeff. We'll listen as Daddy and Uncle Marka recite The Godfather word for word! We'll walk for miles and miles to find the perfect "Diminico Family Christmas Tree." We cherish our memories and the beautiful woman who has grown from them. How very proud we are of you as you turn back again and look towards your future. Our hands and our hearts will always hold tight to you. Our family is our life and will always be our most PRECIOUS blessing. We love you Bri-Bri...more than words can tell.

Scott,

18 years ago, God blessed us with this bald, blue-eyed baby boy. We were in awe at your beauty and the happiness you brought into our lives. Each year, you grew and grew, and more and more people were drawn to your electric personality. We are impressed at your love for your family and friends and the respect you have for others. It's not important to become famous, but to live your life so you continue to earn the respect of your family and friends. As your grandfather says, "Remember who you are and what you stand for." You are truly God's gift to us. Always stay the good soul that you are. We will always be here for you. We love you! Mom, Dad, Justin and Mikey.

"Our Baby"

Shane,

From the moment of your birth when we saw your adorable little face, we fell hopelessly in love with you. From a baby, to a child, to a young adult, you have made us so very proud. Your beautiful smile, your huge warm hugs, your caring and giving ways, you've got a wonderful sense of humor and a good outlook on life. Let all those qualities help you through the rest of your journey in life. Remember Shane, there is no "one way" to live your life but a thousand different ways for each of us to be. Make your life the way you want it, and create a lifestyle that brings you happiness. Search for your true meaning in life by devoting yourself to your ideals; always accept opportunities that present themselves. Daddy and I know you will do awesome in college and some day reach your goal on becoming a Mass State Trooper. Thank you for loving us as much as we love you. You will always be our baby.

P.S. Great job in football!!!

Growing a garden and raising a daughter both require love and nurturing, but there comes a day when you must simply let go and have faith. Later, when you are surrounded by flowers and discover that the child you raised has blossomed into a wonderful woman, all thats left to do is be greatful and rejoice in the miracle that is life!
